Paul Revere Midnight Ride Timeline

1775

Revere writes a letter to his wife after his Midnight Ride

1775

Rachel Revere writes a response to Paul's letter

Mylear Affail I am exceeding flat to hear you are you are easy for I knowled of an exceeding flat to hear you are you are easy for I knowled flat of arms by I am for a had a some beer firm purply at to get I seems for a had a some for a had a some for a had a some for a had a so them for a had a some at modelays gardening and his lon has been known and scarce of form and gave mane and scarce of form name to this father on course terms soon I have been a for her form you can be sound a firm from yout to soll on the soll of the sound and the sound a father form you to so the proper of the soll of your to form you to so the soll of the sound a form for your to so the soll of the soll of

1775

Revere rides from Boston to Philadelphia

This feeling that the build have a going copy of feeling the Same of Perfections of the Same in he same on house of the same of the Samuel of the Samuel of the Samuel

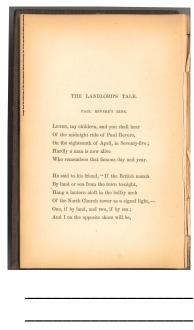

1798

Revere writes his 3rd version of his Midnight Ride account

Comment of the commen

Longfellow writes his poem, Paul Revere's Ride

1860

|  |  |  |
|------|------|--|
|      |      |  |
|      |      |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|      |      |  |
|      |      |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|      |      |  |